

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AZTEC SOFTWARE ACQUIRES THE CENTER FOR WORK ETHIC DEVELOPMENT

EXPANDING COURSE OFFERINGS FOCUSED ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF FOUNDATIONAL WORKPLACE SKILLS

[Morristown, NJ], [July 31, 2023] – Aztec Software LLC (Aztec) , is proud to announce the acquisition of The Center for Work Ethic Development (CWED). The combination brings together Aztec's academic, workforce, financial wellness, and career and technical education (CTE) courses and CWED's focus on the development of foundational workplace skills, the building blocks in the development of next level employees.

The Center for Work Ethic Development has been at the forefront of preparing job seekers for the demands of today's job market. Their Bring Your 'A' Game curriculum focuses on teaching individuals the seven key skills required for occupational excellence. These skills include attitude, attendance, appearance, ambition, accountability, acceptance, and appreciation. By mastering these skills, and earning their Certificate of Work Ethic Proficiency, individuals can enhance their employability, job performance, and overall career prospects.

"This partnership highlights Aztec's continued dedication to fortifying and expanding the resources needed to have a meaningful impact in the lives of people – regardless of educational level, life stage, or background," said Michael Kheyfets, President and COO of Aztec. "By welcoming the Center for Work Ethic Development and its stellar Bring Your 'A' Game curriculum to the Aztec family, we are maximizing the educational and training resources and opportunities to help organizations serve their learners and do our part to ensure that everyone has equal access to jobs and the economic opportunity and security that comes with them."

"I cannot imagine a better home for The Center for Work Ethic Development than a company like Aztec who has focused on making generational change in the lives of adults for more than 40 years," said Josh Davies, CEO of CWED. "By joining the Aztec family, we have the opportunity to expand the reach of our curriculum and make an even greater impact on workforce readiness. Together, we can empower individuals to achieve their professional goals and contribute to the growth and success of their communities." Mr. Davies will lead an ever-growing workforce effort for Aztec.

Aztec and The Center for Work Ethic Development share a common vision of bridging the gap between education and employment. This collaboration is more than just a partnership between two organizations. It is a commitment to creating a more equitable future, where everyone can succeed by equipping individuals with the skills needed to thrive in today's fast-paced and evolving workforce.

For more information about Aztec and its comprehensive workforce training and certification solutions, please visit Aztec Software.

About Aztec:

Aztec is a leading provider of workforce training and certification solutions designed to empower individuals to succeed in their careers. Bringing together academic and career-focused courses, Aztec equips learners with industry-relevant knowledge and creates pathways for career growth and advancement. With a commitment to excellence and innovation, Aztec continues to shape the workforce training landscape.

About The Center for Work Ethic Development:

The Center for Work Ethic Development, led by industry expert Josh Davies, is dedicated to preparing individuals for success in the workplace by instilling the essential skills needed for professional excellence. The organization's Bring Your 'A' Game curriculum focuses on developing critical skills that enhance employability and job performance. With a proven track record, the Center for Work Ethic Development has empowered countless individuals to excel in their careers, across all 50 states and 7 countries